

Beyond Globalisation: Prospects for Eurasia

*Organised Jointly by
Cambridge Journal of Eurasian Studies,
Cambridge Central Asia Forum,
Institute of New Industrial Development, Saint Petersburg, Russia,
in Cooperation with Centre of Development Studies, University of Cambridge*

12th of May, 2017

Riley Auditorium, Gillespie Centre, Memorial Court, Queens Road, Cambridge CB3 9AJ, United Kingdom

Programme

10:15-11:00 Registration, Coffee

11:00-11:30 Welcome and Introduction:

Siddharth Saxena, Gleb Cheglakov, Sergey Bodrunov and David Lane

11:15-12:45 Eurasia and Globalisation

Chair: Shailaja Fennell (University of Cambridge)

11:15-11:35 Sergey Bodrunov (Institute of New Industrial Development, Saint Petersburg)

Overcoming globalisation's collisions: Eurasian cooperation may become a common path to a new civilisation

11:35-11:55 Peter Nolan (University of Cambridge)

The contradictions of capitalist globalisation

11:55-12:15 Aleksandr Buzgalin (Moscow State University)

Ecology of humans: An alternative Eurasian strategy

12:15-12:45 Discussion

12:45-13:30 Lunch

13:30-14:30 New Internal Linkages in the Eurasian Space (A)

Chair: Aleksandr Buzgalin (Moscow State University)

13:30-13:40 Andrew Leung (Independent Scholar)

5-S Governance recipe for sustainable development in Central Asia with One Belt, One Road

13:40-13:50 Elena Tkachenko (Saint Petersburg State University of Economics)

Approaches to the formulation of the industrial policy of EAEU in the conditions of new industrial policy

13:50-14:00 Najam Abbas (Institute of Ismaili Studies, London)

Identifying drivers that may reframe and reshape regional relations in Eurasian states

14:00-14:10 Timur Alexandrov (University of Cambridge)

Resources for civil society: the case of ethno-cultural associations in Kazakhstan

14:10-14:30 Discussion

14:30-15:30 New Internal Linkages in the Eurasian Space (B)

Chair: Chokan Laumulin (University of Cambridge)

14:30-14:40 Anna Bilous (University of Cambridge)

Aircraft manufacturing in Post-Soviet states: Key problems and lessons learnt

14:40-14:50 Filiz Katman (Istanbul Aydin University)

Continuity and change in Eurasia: Integrations vs confrontation

14:50-15:00 Boyka Stefanova (University of Texas, St Antonio)

Beyond inter-regionalism: Competing perspectives on territoriality and regionalism in Central Asia

15:00-15:10 Elena Korosteleva (University of Kent)

Challenges of globalisation: how to make EU good governance better?

15:10-15:30 Discussion

15:30-16:30 Eurasia and the Global Discourse

Chair: Elena Korosteleva (University of Kent)

15:30-15:40 Zahid Khan (Shanghai University)

China's energy driven initiatives with Iran: Implications for the United States of America

15:40-15:50 Claus Kao-Chu Soong (Tsinghua University)

A yet shifted world order in Eurasia: Geopolitical analysis of One Belt, One Road

15:50-16:00 Daler Dzhahborov (Moscow State University)

An updated planned system - a new source of economic development for BRICS countries

16:00-16:10 Anise Waljee (Cambridge Central Asia Forum)

Reinterpreting cultural values: Students' experiences abroad

16:10-16:20 Yahia Baiza (Institute of Ismaili Studies, London)

Afghanistan and the US-Russia Rivalry in Central Asia

16:20-16:40 Discussion

16:40-17:00 Tea/Coffee

17:00-18:00 Eurasia between Asia and Europe

Chair: Siddharth Saxena (University of Cambridge)

17:00-17:10 Kaisyn Khubiev (Saint Petersburg State University)

New trends of the global economic movement in the 21st century

17:10-17:20 Irina Morozova (University of Regensburg)

Metamorphoses of 'connectivity': how debates on strategies to Central Asia shape European identities and practices within the EU

17:20-17:30 Ivan Peshkov (Adam Mickiewicz University)

Border capitalism with Soviet aesthetic: Conversion and production of Soviet objects in Makhmouli, a Russia-oriented Chinese borderline city

17:30-17:40 Rahima Abduvalieva (Chingiz Aitmatov Foundation)

The European mission of Chingiz Aitmatov

17:40-17:50 Khurshid Sana Khan (Independent Scholar)

The educational and economic microcosm of Gilgit-Baltistan Ismailis within the game changing China Pakistan Economic Corridor project

17:50-18:10 Discussion

18:10 Closing Remarks